

Speak the Culture: France

June 2008

Notes

Quiz Questions

Q. What did archaeologists recently find at the bottom of the River Rhône in Arles?

A.

Q Which artist creating more than 60 different paintings of Mont St. Victoire near his Provençal home?

A.

Q. Which foreign singer became a Chevalier Dans L'Ordre Des Arts et des Lettres (awarded for significant contributions to the 'French cultural inheritance') on May 5, 2008?

A.

Q. Jacques Tati was famous for a pipe-smoking, mac-wearing character, star of such films as Mon Oncle (1958). What was the character called?

A.

Q. Why did a recent exhibition of unpublished colour photos of wartime Paris taken by André Zucca spark controversy?

A.

Q. The 2008 edition of the Michelin guide was published in March. Only one restaurant, Le Petit Nice, was newly elevated to three star status. Which city is it in?

A.

Q: Who wrote À la recherche du temps perdu, taking more than a decade to complete it?

A:

Q. Which team finished bottom of the French football Ligue 1 at the end of the 2007/2008 season?

A.

Q. In the classic 1966 film Un homme et une femme the lovers of the title keep returning to which seaside town?

A.

Q. Which newspaper was founded by Jean-Paul Sartre and his Maoist friends in 1973?

A.

Quiz questions written
by Andrew Whittaker
of speaktheculture.net

In association with
thisfrenchlife.com

Speak the Culture: France

June 2008

Notes

Quiz Questions and Answers

Q. What did archaeologists recently find at the bottom of the River Rhône in Arles?

A. A bust of Julius Caesar dating to the First Century BC

Q Which artist creating more than 60 different paintings of Mont St. Victoire near his Provençal home?

A. Paul Cézanne.

Q. Which foreign singer became a Chevalier Dans L'Ordre Des Arts et des Lettres (awarded for significant contributions to the 'French cultural inheritance') on May 5, 2008?

A. Kylie Minogue.

Q. Jacques Tati was famous for a pipe-smoking, mac-wearing character, star of such films as Mon Oncle (1958). What was the character called?

A. Monsieur Hulot.

Q. Why did a recent exhibition of unpublished colour photos of wartime Paris taken by André Zucca spark controversy?

A. Photos of Parisians apparently enjoying life under German occupation.

Q. The 2008 edition of the Michelin guide was published in March. Only one restaurant, Le Petit Nice, was newly elevated to three star status. Which city is it in?

A. Marseille.

Q: Who wrote À la recherche du temps perdu, taking more than a decade to complete it?

A: Marcel Proust.

Q. Which team finished bottom of the French football Ligue 1 at the end of the 2007/2008 season?

A. Metz.

Q. In the classic 1966 film Un homme et une femme the lovers of the title keep returning to which seaside town?

A. Deauville

Q. Which newspaper was founded by Jean-Paul Sartre and his Maoist friends in 1973?

A. Libération.

Quiz questions written
by Andrew Whittaker
of speaktheculture.net

In association with thisfrenchlife.com